Latest news about Preservere's activities

Dear reader,

A new phase of PRESERVERE has officially begun. After analysing the state of implementation of the anti-racism legal framework in 6 European countries, the project partners are now committed to a series of training courses for legal professionals and frontline workers. The goal is to raise awareness of the topic under discussion.

In the meantime, we want to share some updates about our activities:

If you are a legal professional or a frontline worker based in the Netherlands, don't miss the two trainings by our partner Digital Society School about anti-racism and anti-discrimination. For more info, visit the following links:

- Training for legal professionals;
- Training for frontline workers.

Dr Katerina Kalaitzaki presented on the 28th of April 2023 the project PRESERVERE, with a focus on Victims' Rights, during the Closing Conference of the 'Social Mediation and the strengthening of Rule of Law in Cyprus' (SOMEROL) organised at UCLan Cyprus.

On 26 and 27 April, our partner Lai-momo Società Cooperativa Sociale led an online meeting to present PRESERERE and the training tools implemented by the consortium. Experts and professionals gave their feedback and provided useful indications for the implementation of the training activities.
